

Beaver Dam

Citizen of the Year Nomination

Citizen Nomination

The Beaver Dam Chamber of Commerce recognizes a Business, Citizen and a Non-Profit of the Year at the organization's Annual Meeting, held each January. The organizations and individual are recognized for prior years of service or commitment to the community. The Business and Non-Profit of the Year must have their primary or a satellite location physically located within the geographic boundaries of the City of Beaver Dam, or one of the surrounding townships. In order to qualify as a non-profit, an organization must include their federal tax ID number. The Citizen of the Year must either live in the City of Beaver Dam or one of the surrounding townships, or work at a location within the City of Beaver Dam or one of the surrounding townships. Chamber membership is not required to be considered any of the recognitions.
