

Citizens Who Have Left a Legacy Nomination

Beginning in 2020 the Beaver Dam Chamber of Commerce will consider recognizing posthumously citizens who have left a significant legacy in the community and that were not previously recognized as a Citizen of the Year while they were alive. The recognitions will take place alongside the Business, Citizen and a Non-Profit of the Year recognitions at the Chamber's Annual Meeting, held each January. The criteria for this recognition will be identical to the criteria for the Citizen of the Year, with the caveat that the individual has passed away and that they did not receive the Citizen of the Year recognition while alive.
